President Lynn S. Haugh,
Northwestern University,
Evanston, Ill.

Dear President Haugh:

I have this morning your second wire inviting Sir Robert Falconer to deliver the Convocation address on Wednesday June sixteenth. The first wire was forwarded to him at Edmonton, but he was not due to reach Edmonton until eleven o'clock on Saturday night, so that to-day would be the earliest that you could possibly hear from him. To-morrow he leaves for Calgary to address the Alberta Educational Association. I am therefore not forwarding your second message, as I am sure you will receive before this reaches you an answer to the first message.

Yours sincerely,

President's Secretary.

My dear Mr. Falconer:-

President Hough has asked me to write you to express his extreme gratification that you will be able to give the commencement address at Northwestern on Wednesday, June 16th.

The President would have written you personally, but for the past few days he has been confined to his bed with a rather severe cold. He will write you later in the matter of the details of your visit. He is looking forward to your coming with keen anticipation.

Sincerely yours,
E. Leyman Jr.
Secretary to the President.

President Lynn Harold Hough,
Northwestern University,
Evanston, Ill.

My dear President Hough:

I have this morning received your very kind letter stating that the Northwestern University has offered to confer upon me the degree of Doctor of Laws. I appreciate very highly this courtesy and the mark of your esteem for our University, and I shall be much pleased to accept this distinction at your hands.

I am also looking forward with the greatest of pleasure to visiting you during Commencement week.

With kindest regards, I am,
Yours sincerely,

President.

My dear Sir Robert:

I want to tell you how very much I enjoyed my visit at the University of Toronto and particularly of the pleasure I had in meeting you personally in your own home.

I have a new sense of the vigor and richness of the cultural tradition which you are forming in Canada.

With the most hearty good wishes for the University and for you,

Sincerely yours,

Lyman Harold Hough.
